SPARK PEACE PROJECT

FOUNDING MISSION

Students Rebuild was created in 2010 by the Bezos Family Foundation after a devastating earthquake in Haiti.

Seeing the students' compassion and connection, they realized they had unlocked something special.

students REBUILD IS NOW a PART OF CREATIVE VISIONS

Creative Visions, a top non-profit for social change through arts, media, and education, has taken over the Students Rebuild program from the Bezos Family Foundation.

With a history of successful youth programs, we are excited to bring new perspectives to engage students in impactful projects.

INTRODUCING THE SPARK PEACE PROJECT

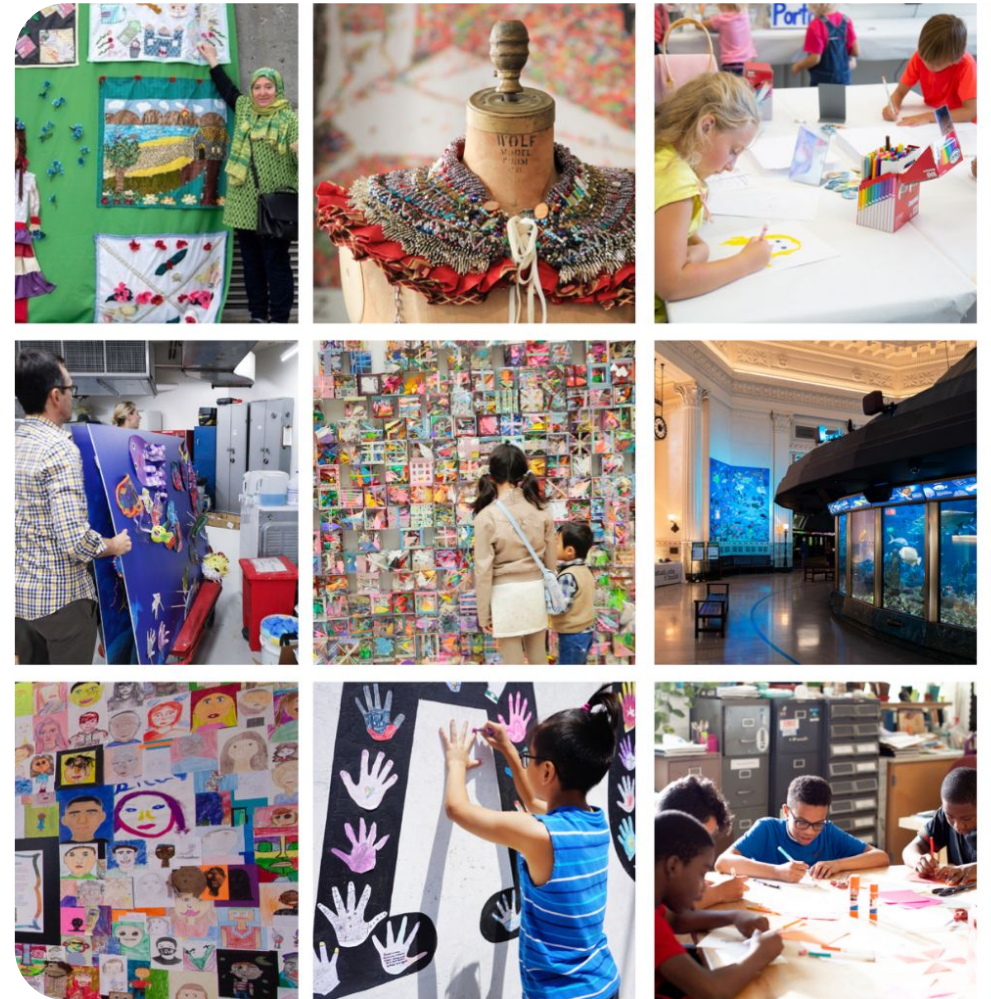

a GLOBAL INITIATIVE FOR PEACE

This year, we're inviting youth around the globe to join us on a journey towards a more peaceful world.

Our theme for this year focuses on peace and compassion across three dimensions:

- Peace Within (mindfulness and self-compassion)
- Peace With Others (compassion and understanding across differences)
- Peace Around the World (addressing conflict through connection and collaboration).

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

1. LEARN

Explore resources like activity and lesson plans, book lists, and videos to learn about cultivating peace.

2. CREATE

Encourage students to choose from a variety of mediums and express their ideas about peace through one of our themes.

3. SHARE

Submit students' creative works to Students Rebuild and help support peacebuilding organizations. Creative Visions will donate $5, up to $1 million for each submission or student engaged.

Get creative in your way!

Any type of creative expression counts.

Literary Arts: Submissions like short stories, essays, poetry, scripts, and graphic novels (maximum 1,000 words).

Visual Arts: Including drawings, paintings, graphic design, photography, memes, and designed social media posts.

Performing Arts: Dance, theater, spoken word, and music performances.

Media Arts: PSAs, films, and videos (maximum 3 minutes).

STEM: Projects in robotics, digital design, and gaming.

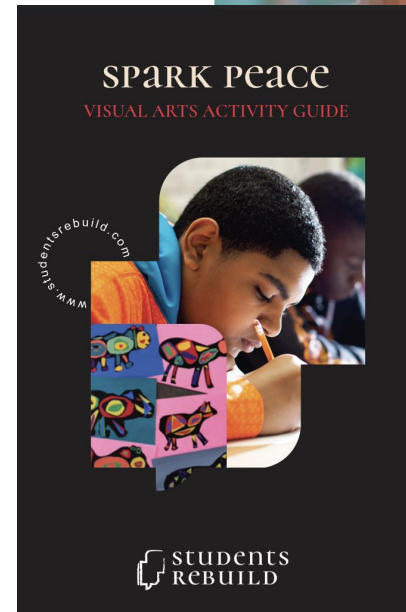

TOOLS AND MATERIALS

We have range of tools and materials to help you Spark Peace in your classrooms.

Video: Use our introductory video to call students to action by presenting the challenge in an engaging way.
